

Secure societies – Protecting freedom and security of Europe and its citizens

Critical Infrastructure Protection

Prevention, detection, response and mitigation of the combination of physical and cyber threats to the critical infrastructure of Europe.

Proposals should focus on one of the following critical infrastructures: Communication Infrastructure, Health Services, Financial Services.

Disaster-resilience: safeguarding and securing society

Chemical, biological, radiological and nuclear \(CBRN\) cluster

Fight against crime and Terrorism

Human Factor for the Prevention, Investigation, and Mitigation of criminal and terrorist acts

Integration of detection capabilities and data fusion with utility providers' networks

Border Security and External Security

Risk-based screening at border crossing

Through-foliage detection, including in the outermost regions of the EU
Architectures and organizations, big data and data analytics for customs risk management of the international goods supply chain trade movements
Acceptance of "no gate crossing point solutions"

Digital Security

Addressing Advanced Cyber Security Threats and

Privacy, Data Protection, Digital Identities